and three Directors, who shall be elected for a term of two years, two in even

Business transacted at the meetings of the Board shall be reported regularly to the membership via Law Library Lights.

The Directors shall use ordinary care and reasonable diligence, but shall not be personally liable for any debts, loss or diminution of the Society’s funds because of any mistake in judgment or other act of failure to act in the good faith performance of their duties, nor for any act or failure to act of any one or more of the other Directors or of any officer selected by and acting on behalf of the Society. Each of the Directors shall be entitled to rely upon any paper or document believed to be genuine and to have been made, executed or delivered by the proper parties purporting to have made, executed or delivered the same, and shall be entitled to rely on the correctness of the information or statements contained therein without any duty to make any investigation or inquiry as to the correctness of the same. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he or she reasonably believed in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the Society and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe that such conduct was unlawful. To the extent that a Director or officer has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in the above paragraph or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he or she shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys’ fees) actually and reasonably incurred in connection therewith.
