The House met at 12 o'clock noon.

The Journal of the proceedings of yesterday was read and agreed to.

Executive nomination withdrawn September 18, 1913.

CURRENCY.

The Speaker. The unfinished business is the bill H. R. 7897, on which bill and amendments thereto the previous question has been ordered. Is a separate vote demanded on any amendment?

Mr. WINGO. Mr. Speaker, I demand a separate vote on the amendment to line 12, page 59, which indemnifies the gold standard.

The Speaker. Is a separate vote demanded on any other amendment? If not, the Chair will put them in gross.

The question was taken, and the amendments were agreed to.

The Speaker. The Clerk will report the amendment on which the gentleman from Arkansas [Mr. Wingo] demands a separate vote.

The Clerk read as follows:

After the word "repealed," in line 12, page 59, insert the following:

"Provided, That nothing in this act contained shall be considered to repeal the parity provision or provisions contained in an act approved March 14, 1900, entitled 'An act to delinie and fix the standard of value, to maintain the parity of all forms of money issued or coined by the United States, to refund the public debt, and for other purposes.'"

The question was taken, and the Speaker announced that the ayes seemed to have it.

Mr. WINGO. Mr. Speaker, I demand a division, Mr. Speaker.

The question was taken, and there were—ayes 290, noes 65, answered "present," not voting 56, as follows:

YEAS—290.

Mr. WINGO. Mr. Speaker, I demand the yeas and nays.

Mr. WINGO. I demand a division, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WINGO. I demand the yeas and nays, Mr. Speaker.

The yeas and nays were ordered.

The Speaker. Is a separate vote demanded on any other amendment?

Mr. WINGO. Mr. Speaker, I demand a separate vote on the amendment to line 12, page 59, which indemnifies the gold standard.

The Speaker. Is a separate vote demanded on any other amendment? If not, the Chair will put them in gross.

The question was taken, and the amendments were agreed to.

The Speaker. The Clerk will report the amendment on which the gentleman from Arkansas [Mr. Wingo] demands a separate vote.

The Clerk read as follows:

After the word "repealed," in line 12, page 59, insert the following:

"Provided, That nothing in this act contained shall be considered to repeal the parity provision or provisions contained in an act approved March 14, 1900, entitled 'An act to delinie and fix the standard of value, to maintain the parity of all forms of money issued or coined by the United States, to refund the public debt, and for other purposes.'"

The question was taken, and the Speaker announced that the ayes seemed to have it.

Mr. WINGO. Mr. Speaker, I demand a division, Mr. Speaker.

The question was taken, and there were—ayes 290, noes 65, answered "present," not voting 56, as follows:

YEAS—290.

Mr. WINGO. Mr. Speaker, I demand the yeas and nays.

Mr. WINGO. I demand a division, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WINGO. I demand the yeas and nays, Mr. Speaker.

The yeas and nays were ordered.

The Speaker. Is a separate vote demanded on any other amendment?

Mr. WINGO. Mr. Speaker, I demand a separate vote on the amendment to line 12, page 59, which indemnifies the gold standard.

The Speaker. Is a separate vote demanded on any other amendment? If not, the Chair will put them in gross.

The question was taken, and the amendments were agreed to.

The Speaker. The Clerk will report the amendment on which the gentleman from Arkansas [Mr. Wingo] demands a separate vote.

The Clerk read as follows:

After the word "repealed," in line 12, page 59, insert the following:

"Provided, That nothing in this act contained shall be considered to repeal the parity provision or provisions contained in an act approved March 14, 1900, entitled 'An act to delinie and fix the standard of value, to maintain the parity of all forms of money issued or coined by the United States, to refund the public debt, and for other purposes.'"

The question was taken, and the Speaker announced that the ayes seemed to have it.

Mr. WINGO. Mr. Speaker, I demand a division, Mr. Speaker.

The question was taken, and there were—ayes 290, noes 65, answered "present," not voting 56, as follows:

YEAS—290.
Mr. GLASS. Mr. Speaker, on the motion to recommit I move the previous question.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Virginia [Mr. GLASS] moves the previous question on the motion to recommit. The previous question was ordered.

The SPEAKER. The question is on agreeing to the motion to recommit.

The question was taken, and the Speaker announced that the ayes seemed to have it.

Mr. MURDOCK. Mr. Speaker, I demand a division.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Kansas [Mr. MURDOCK] demands a division. Those in favor of the motion to recommit will rise and stand until they are counted. [After counting:] Seventy-one gentlemen have arisen in the affirmative. Those opposed will rise and stand until they are counted. [After counting:] Two hundred and six gentlemen have arisen in favor of taking the yeas by vote and yeas and nays.

Mr. YOUNG of North Dakota. One more, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. It is too late after the vote is announced.

Mr. MURDOCK. The other side, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Those opposed to ordering the yeas and nays will rise and stand until they are counted. [After counting:] Two hundred and seventy-five gentlemen have arisen in the negative.

Mr. MURDOCK. Mr. Speaker, I demand tellers.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Kansas demands tellers. Those in favor of ordering tellers will rise and stand until they are counted. [After counting:] Forty-four gentlemen have arisen in favor of taking the yeas by yeas and nays.

Mr. YOUNG of North Dakota. One more, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. It is too late after the vote is announced.

Mr. MURDOCK. The other side, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Those opposed to ordering the yeas and nays will rise and stand until they are counted. [After counting:] Two hundred and forty tellers have arisen in the negative.

Mr. MURDOCK. Mr. Speaker, I demand tellers.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Kansas demands tellers. Those in favor of ordering tellers will rise and stand until they are counted. [After counting:] Forty-four gentlemen have arisen in favor of taking the yeas by yeas and nays.

Mr. YOUNG of North Dakota. One more, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. It is too late after the vote is announced.

Mr. MURDOCK. The other side, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Those opposed to ordering the yeas and nays will rise and stand until they are counted. [After counting:] Two hundred and forty tellers have arisen in the negative.

Mr. MURDOCK. Mr. Speaker, I demand a division.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Kansas demands a division. Those in favor of the motion to recommit will rise and stand until they are counted. [After counting:] Seventy-three gentlemen have arisen in the affirmative. Those opposed will rise and stand until they are counted. [After counting:] One hundred and thirty-nine gentlemen have arisen in favor of taking the yeas by yeas and nays.

Mr. MURDOCK. Mr. Speaker, I demand a division.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Kansas demands a division. Those in favor of the motion to recommit will rise and stand until they are counted. [After counting:] Seventy-five gentlemen have arisen in the affirmative. Those opposed will rise and stand until they are counted. [After counting:] One hundred and thirty-nine gentlemen have arisen in favor of taking the yeas by yeas and nays.

Mr. MURDOCK. Mr. Speaker, I demand tellers.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Kansas demands tellers. Those in favor of ordering tellers will rise and stand until they are counted. [After counting:] Forty-four gentlemen have arisen in favor of taking the yeas by yeas and nays.

Mr. YOUNG of North Dakota. One more, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. It is too late after the vote is announced.

Mr. MURDOCK. The other side, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Those opposed to ordering the yeas and nays will rise and stand until they are counted. [After counting:] Two hundred and forty tellers have arisen in the negative.

Mr. MURDOCK. Mr. Speaker, I demand tellers.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Kansas demands tellers. Those in favor of ordering tellers will rise and stand until they are counted. [After counting:] Forty-four gentlemen have arisen in favor of taking the yeas by yeas and nays.

Mr. YOUNG of North Dakota. One more, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. It is too late after the vote is announced.

Mr. MURDOCK. The other side, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Those opposed to ordering the yeas and nays will rise and stand until they are counted. [After counting:] Two hundred and forty tellers have arisen in the negative.

Mr. MURDOCK. Mr. Speaker, I demand a division.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Kansas demands a division. Those in favor of the motion to recommit will rise and stand until they are counted. [After counting:] Seventy-five gentlemen have arisen in the affirmative. Those opposed will rise and stand until they are counted. [After counting:] One hundred and thirty-nine gentlemen have arisen in favor of taking the yeas by yeas and nays.

Mr. MURDOCK. Mr. Speaker, I demand a division.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Kansas demands a division. Those in favor of the motion to recommit will rise and stand until they are counted. [After counting:] Seventy-five gentlemen have arisen in the affirmative. Those opposed will rise and stand until they are counted. [After counting:] One hundred and thirty-nine gentlemen have arisen in favor of taking the yeas by yeas and nays.

Mr. MURDOCK. Mr. Speaker, I demand tellers.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Kansas demands tellers. Those in favor of ordering tellers will rise and stand until they are counted. [After counting:] Forty-four gentlemen have arisen in favor of taking the yeas by yeas and nays.

Mr. YOUNG of North Dakota. One more, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. It is too late after the vote is announced.

Mr. MURDOCK. The other side, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Those opposed to ordering the yeas and nays will rise and stand until they are counted. [After counting:] Two hundred and forty tellers have arisen in the negative.

Mr. MURDOCK. Mr. Speaker, I demand a division.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Kansas demands a division. Those in favor of the motion to recommit will rise and stand until they are counted. [After counting:] Seventy-three gentlemen have arisen in the affirmative. Those opposed will rise and stand until they are counted. [After counting:] One hundred and thirty-nine gentlemen have arisen in favor of taking the yeas by yeas and nays.

Mr. MURDOCK. Mr. Speaker, I demand a division.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Kansas demands a division. Those in favor of the motion to recommit will rise and stand until they are counted. [After counting:] Seventy-five gentlemen have arisen in the affirmative. Those opposed will rise and stand until they are counted. [After counting:] One hundred and thirty-nine gentlemen have arisen in favor of taking the yeas by yeas and nays.
The yeas and nays were ordered. Mr. BURKE of Pennsylvania. Mr. Speaker, on that I de­

The question was taken; and there were—yeas 287, nays 85, as follows: Danforth

The Speaker. I would like to

The following additional pairs were announced: Mr. KINKEAD of New Jersey with Mr. DANFORTH.

So the motion to reconvene with instructions to the Clerk was dropped. The Clerk called the name of the Mr. PATTON of Pennsylvania.

So the motion to reconvene with instructions to the Clerk was dropped. The Clerk called the name of the Mr. PATTON of Pennsylvania.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded. Mr. EDMUND of Michigan with Mr. BRYAN.

The following additional pairs were announced: Mr. KINKEAD of New Jersey with Mr. DANFORTH.

The Speaker. The question is, Shall the bill pass? Mr. BROWN of New York (for) with Mr. PROUTY (against).

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded. Mr. EDMUND of Michigan with Mr. BRYAN.

The Speaker. The question is, Shall the bill pass? Mr. BROWN of New York (for) with Mr. PROUTY (against).

The Speaker. The question is, Shall the bill pass? Mr. BROWN of New York (for) with Mr. PROUTY (against).

The Speaker. The question is, Shall the bill pass? Mr. BROWN of New York (for) with Mr. PROUTY (against).

So the motion to reconvene with instructions to the Clerk was dropped. The Clerk called the name of the Mr. PATTON of Pennsylvania.

The Speaker. The question is, Shall the bill pass? Mr. BROWN of New York (for) with Mr. PROUTY (against).

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded. Mr. EDMUND of Michigan with Mr. BRYAN.

The Speaker. The question is, Shall the bill pass? Mr. BROWN of New York (for) with Mr. PROUTY (against).

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded. Mr. EDMUND of Michigan with Mr. BRYAN.

The Speaker. The question is, Shall the bill pass? Mr. BROWN of New York (for) with Mr. PROUTY (against).

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded. Mr. EDMUND of Michigan with Mr. BRYAN.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded. Mr. EDMUND of Michigan with Mr. BRYAN.

The Speaker. The question is, Shall the bill pass? Mr. BROWN of New York (for) with Mr. PROUTY (against).

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded. Mr. EDMUND of Michigan with Mr. BRYAN.

The Speaker. The question is, Shall the bill pass? Mr. BROWN of New York (for) with Mr. PROUTY (against).

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded. Mr. EDMUND of Michigan with Mr. BRYAN.

The Speaker. The question is, Shall the bill pass? Mr. BROWN of New York (for) with Mr. PROUTY (against).

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded. Mr. EDMUND of Michigan with Mr. BRYAN.

The Speaker. The question is, Shall the bill pass? Mr. BROWN of New York (for) with Mr. PROUTY (against).

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded. Mr. EDMUND of Michigan with Mr. BRYAN.

The Speaker. The question is, Shall the bill pass? Mr. BROWN of New York (for) with Mr. PROUTY (against).

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded. Mr. EDMUND of Michigan with Mr. BRYAN.

The Speaker. The question is, Shall the bill pass? Mr. BROWN of New York (for) with Mr. PROUTY (against).

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded. Mr. EDMUND of Michigan with Mr. BRYAN.

The Speaker. The question is, Shall the bill pass? Mr. BROWN of New York (for) with Mr. PROUTY (against).

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded. Mr. EDMUND of Michigan with Mr. BRYAN.

The Speaker. The question is, Shall the bill pass? Mr. BROWN of New York (for) with Mr. PROUTY (against).

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded. Mr. EDMUND of Michigan with Mr. BRYAN.

The Speaker. The question is, Shall the bill pass? Mr. BROWN of New York (for) with Mr. PROUTY (against).

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded. Mr. EDMUND of Michigan with Mr. BRYAN.

The Speaker. The question is, Shall the bill pass? Mr. BROWN of New York (for) with Mr. PROUTY (against).

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded. Mr. EDMUND of Michigan with Mr. BRYAN.

The Speaker. The question is, Shall the bill pass? Mr. BROWN of New York (for) with Mr. PROUTY (against).

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded. Mr. EDMUND of Michigan with Mr. BRYAN.

The Speaker. The question is, Shall the bill pass? Mr. BROWN of New York (for) with Mr. PROUTY (against).

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded. Mr. EDMUND of Michigan with Mr. BRYAN.

The Speaker. The question is, Shall the bill pass? Mr. BROWN of New York (for) with Mr. PROUTY (against).

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded. Mr. EDMUND of Michigan with Mr. BRYAN.

The Speaker. The question is, Shall the bill pass? Mr. BROWN of New York (for) with Mr. PROUTY (against).

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded. Mr. EDMUND of Michigan with Mr. BRYAN.

The Speaker. The question is, Shall the bill pass? Mr. BROWN of New York (for) with Mr. PROUTY (against).

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded. Mr. EDMUND of Michigan with Mr. BRYAN.

The Speaker. The question is, Shall the bill pass? Mr. BROWN of New York (for) with Mr. PROUTY (against).

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded. Mr. EDMUND of Michigan with Mr. BRYAN.

The Speaker. The question is, Shall the bill pass? Mr. BROWN of New York (for) with Mr. PROUTY (against).

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded. Mr. EDMUND of Michigan with Mr. BRYAN.

The Speaker. The question is, Shall the bill pass? Mr. BROWN of New York (for) with Mr. PROUTY (against).

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded. Mr. EDMUND of Michigan with Mr. BRYAN.

The Speaker. The question is, Shall the bill pass? Mr. BROWN of New York (for) with Mr. PROUTY (against).

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded. Mr. EDMUND of Michigan with Mr. BRYAN.

The Speaker. The question is, Shall the bill pass? Mr. BROWN of New York (for) with Mr. PROUTY (against).

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded. Mr. EDMUND of Michigan with Mr. BRYAN.

The Speaker. The question is, Shall the bill pass? Mr. BROWN of New York (for) with Mr. PROUTY (against).

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded. Mr. EDMUND of Michigan with Mr. BRYAN.

The Speaker. The question is, Shall the bill pass? Mr. BROWN of New York (for) with Mr. PROUTY (against).

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded. Mr. EDMUND of Michigan with Mr. BRYAN.

The Speaker. The question is, Shall the bill pass? Mr. BROWN of New York (for) with Mr. PROUTY (against).

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded. Mr. EDMUND of Michigan with Mr. BRYAN.

The Speaker. The question is, Shall the bill pass? Mr. BROWN of New York (for) with Mr. PROUTY (against).

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded. Mr. EDMUND of Michigan with Mr. BRYAN.

The Speaker. The question is, Shall the bill pass? Mr. BROWN of New York (for) with Mr. PROUTY (against).

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded. Mr. EDMUND of Michigan with Mr. BRYAN.

The Speaker. The question is, Shall the bill pass? Mr. BROWN of New York (for) with Mr. PROUTY (against).

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded. Mr. EDMUND of Michigan with Mr. BRYAN.
The SPEAKER. On the passage of the bill, Mr. Thompson of Oklahoma. Then I will not vote. After the completion of the roll call, The Speaker. On this vote the ayes are—Mr. Thompson of Oklahoma. Mr. Speaker—The Speaker. For what purpose does the gentleman rise? Mr. Thompson of Oklahoma. I would like to vote. Mr. Mann. It is too late. The Speaker. The Chair is inclined to think it is too late. Mr. Bartlett. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman’s name has been called, and if he can bring himself within the rule, he is entitled to vote. The Speaker. The rule is that if he was in the Hall and listening and did not hear his name called, he may vote. Mr. Mann. But the Speaker would know that that was not true, because the gentleman from Oklahoma asked what we were voting on and declined to vote. The Speaker considered it superfluous, because the gentleman from Oklahoma asked what we were voting on and declined to vote. Mr. Bartlett. I submit that, if he desires to vote, he can state what the fact was and the Speaker can rule on whether he is entitled to vote or not—of course, before the vote has been announced. The Speaker. The Chair had just started to announce the vote. If the gentleman from Oklahoma will state that he was in the Hall and listening and did not hear his name called, the Chair will allow him to vote. Mr. Mann. But the Speaker would know that that was not true, because the gentleman did hear his name called and rose to his feet. The Speaker. The Chair is not supposed to pass upon a question of veracity. If the gentleman from Oklahoma will state that he was in the Hall listening and did not hear his name, the Chair will rule that he can vote; and if he does not, he will rule that he can not vote. Mr. Murdock. Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry. The Speaker. The gentleman will state it. Mr. Murdock. Is it not possible for a man to change his vote after the roll call? The Speaker. It is true; but if the gentleman did not vote it is physically impossible for him to change his vote. Mr. Murdock. I understood that the gentleman from Oklahoma voted. The Speaker. No; he refused to vote. Mr. Fowler. A parliamentary inquiry, Mr. Speaker. The Speaker. The gentleman will state it. Mr. Fowler. Under the rules of the House is it proper for a Member to make an inquiry as to what the proceedings are during a roll call? The Speaker. If the rule is construed strictly, no; but the Chair thinks it is easier to let him ask it than it is to get into a written rule. The result of the vote was then announced as above recorded. On motion of Mr. Glass, a motion to reconsider the vote by which the bill was passed was laid on the table.

ADJOURNMENT UNTIL MONDAY.

Mr. Underwood. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that when the House adjourns to-day it adjourn to meet on Monday next. The Speaker. The gentleman from Alabama asks unanimous consent that when the House adjourns it adjourn until Monday next? There was no objection.

PERSONAL STATEMENT.

Mr. Glass. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to address the House for two minutes. The Speaker. The gentleman from Virginia asks unanimous consent to address the House for two minutes. Is there objection? There was no objection.

Mr. Glass. Mr. Speaker, there appeared in the Washington Post this morning a statement concerning the proceedings of the House on yesterday, in which occurs this language: Admitting that the composition of Representative S. D. Fess, Republican, of Ohio, that the Glass currency bill, in the form it was reported to the House, automatically repealed the parity provisions of the gold standard law of 1900, and substituting for practically the free coinage of silver, Chairman Glass and the other members of the Banking and Currency Committee last night agreed to an amendment insuring the maintenance of the gold standard in the monetary system.

Mr. Speaker, as a practical newspaper man of 40 years’ experience, I know well that misrepresentation of that sort carries its own penalties and punishment, but I think I ought to say to the House that I could scarcely comprehend any newspaper, with any respect for the truth or regard for its own reputation, would be guilty of mendacity of that description. [Applause on the Democratic side.] The Record of yesterday teems with declarations from myself and from other Members on this side of the House against the charge that there was one single, solitary word, sentence, or suggestion in this bill that under any consideration whatever could be classified as a repeal of the gold standard, or any other legislation. The bill, undertook by political strategem to raise an utterly false cry over an alleged assault by this side on the gold standard, in no way gravely interpreted it to mean any repeal as was inferred by the gentlemen who made the charge. If there was no other reason for this charge than that they falsely misstated the bill, undertook by political strategem to raise an utterly false cry over an alleged assault by this side, on the gold standard.

Mr. Speaker, as a practical newspaper man of 40 years’ experience, I know very well that misrepresentation of that sort carries its own penalties and punishment, but I think I ought to say to the House that I could scarcely comprehend any newspaper, with any respect for the truth or regard for its own reputation, would be guilty of mendacity of that description. [Applause on the Democratic side.] The Record of yesterday teems with declarations from myself and from other Members on this side of the House against the charge that there was one single, solitary word, sentence, or suggestion in this bill that under any consideration whatever could be classified as a repeal of the gold standard, or any other legislation. The bill, undertook by political strategem to raise an utterly false cry over an alleged assault by this side, on the gold standard.

Mr. Speaker, as a practical newspaper man of 40 years’ experience, I know very well that misrepresentation of that sort carries its own penalties and punishment, but I think I ought to say to the House that I could scarcely comprehend any newspaper, with any respect for the truth or regard for its own reputation, would be guilty of mendacity of that description. [Applause on the Democratic side.] The Record of yesterday teems with declarations from myself and from other Members on this side of the House against the charge that there was one single, solitary word, sentence, or suggestion in this bill that under any consideration whatever could be classified as a repeal of the gold standard, or any other legislation. The bill, undertook by political strategem to raise an utterly false cry over an alleged assault by this side, on the gold standard.

Mr. Speaker, as a practical newspaper man of 40 years’ experience, I know very well that misrepresentation of that sort carries its own penalties and punishment, but I think I ought to say to the House that I could scarcely comprehend any newspaper, with any respect for the truth or regard for its own reputation, would be guilty of mendacity of that description. [Applause on the Democratic side.] The Record of yesterday teems with declarations from myself and from other Members on this side of the House against the charge that there was one single, solitary word, sentence, or suggestion in this bill that under any consideration whatever could be classified as a repeal of the gold standard, or any other legislation. The bill, undertook by political strategem to raise an utterly false cry over an alleged assault by this side, on the gold standard.

Mr. Speaker, as a practical newspaper man of 40 years’ experience, I know very well that misrepresentation of that sort carries its own penalties and punishment, but I think I ought to say to the House that I could scarcely comprehend any newspaper, with any respect for the truth or regard for its own reputation, would be guilty of mendacity of that description. [Applause on the Democratic side.] The Record of yesterday teems with declarations from myself and from other Members on this side of the House against the charge that there was one single, solitary word, sentence, or suggestion in this bill that under any consideration whatever could be classified as a repeal of the gold standard, or any other legislation. The bill, undertook by political strategem to raise an utterly false cry over an alleged assault by this side, on the gold standard.
There is quite a demand in my district for copies of this bill, and 5,000 copies would give each Member only a very few copies. I believe the number ought to be more than 5,000.

Mr. BARNHART. The gentleman asks unanimous consent that 10,000 copies of the currency bill be printed and placed in the document room. Is there objection?

There was no objection.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from New York [Mr. TALCOTT] asks unanimous consent that on Monday, after the routine business of the House has been disposed of, I be permitted to address the House for 40 minutes upon the postal savings-bank system.

Mr. BARNHART. Reserving the right to object, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Missouri objects.

Mr. HOWARD. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that I be permitted to address the House for 50 minutes upon the postal savings-bank system.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from New York asks unanimous consent to print in the Record an article on the subject of postal savings banks. Is there objection?

Mr. BARNHART. Mr. Speaker, reserving the right to object—

Mr. BORLAND. I object.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Missouri objects.

Mr. HOWARD. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that I be permitted to address the House for 50 minutes upon the postal savings-bank system.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from New York asks unanimous consent to print in the Record an article on the subject of postal savings banks. Is there objection?

Mr. BARNHART. Mr. Speaker, reserving the right to object—

Mr. BORLAND. I object.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Missouri objects.

Mr. HOWARD. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that I be permitted to address the House for 50 minutes upon the postal savings-bank system.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from New York asks unanimous consent to have printed 5,000 copies of the report on the currency bill. Does the Chair understand that that includes the views of the minority also?

Mr. GLASS. Yes.

The SPEAKER. Including the views of the minority—to be distributed through the document room. Is there objection?

There was no objection, and it was so ordered.

Mr. BROUSSARD. Mr. Speaker, I will state to the gentleman from Georgia, and I know he will have no objection to it, that the Committee on Expenditures in the Department of Justice has been having hearings, and there is no authority for printing these hearings.

Mr. ADAMSON. Mr. Speaker, I never object to anything in the world, only I am just trying here to pass some bills for my district.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Louisiana asks unanimous consent for the present consideration of the resolution which the Clerk will report.

The Clerk read as follows:

House resolution 227.

Resolved, That the Committee on Expenditures in the Department of Justice is authorized to have such printing and binding done as shall be necessary for the discharge of the work of such committee during the Sixty-third Congress.

The SPEAKER. Is there objection?

There was no objection.

The SPEAKER. The question is on agreeing to the resolution.

The resolution was agreed to.

REPORTS ON CURRENCY BILL.

Mr. GLASS. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to have printed 5,000 copies of the report on the currency bill, to be distributed through the document room. (H. Rept. 69.)

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Virginia asks unanimous consent to have printed 5,000 copies of the report on the currency bill. Does the Chair understand that that includes the views of the minority also?

Mr. GLASS. Yes.

The SPEAKER. Including the views of the minority—to be distributed through the document room. Is there objection?

There was no objection, and it was so ordered.

Bridge across Tennessee River at Chattanooga, Tenn.

Mr. BROUSSARD. Mr. Speaker, I will state to the gentleman from Georgia, and I know he will have no objection to it, that the Committee on Expenditures in the Department of Justice has been having hearings, and there is no authority for printing these hearings.

Mr. ADAMSON. Mr. Speaker, I never object to anything in the world, only I am just trying here to pass some bills for my district.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Louisiana asks unanimous consent for the present consideration of the resolution which the Clerk will report.

The Clerk read as follows:

House resolution 227.

Resolved, That the Committee on Expenditures in the Department of Justice is authorized to have such printing and binding done as shall be necessary for the discharge of the work of such committee during the Sixty-third Congress.

The SPEAKER. Is there objection?

There was no objection.

The SPEAKER. The question is on agreeing to the resolution.

The resolution was agreed to.

Reports on Currency Bill.

Mr. GLASS. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to have printed 5,000 copies of the report on the currency bill, to be distributed through the document room. (H. Rept. 69.)

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Virginia asks unanimous consent to have printed 5,000 copies of the report on the currency bill. Does the Chair understand that that includes the views of the minority also?

Mr. GLASS. Yes.

The SPEAKER. Including the views of the minority—to be distributed through the document room. Is there objection?

There was no objection, and it was so ordered.

Bridge across Tennessee River at Chattanooga, Tenn.

Mr. BROUSSARD. Mr. Speaker, I will state to the gentleman from Georgia, and I know he will have no objection to it, that the Committee on Expenditures in the Department of Justice has been having hearings, and there is no authority for printing these hearings.

Mr. ADAMSON. Mr. Speaker, I never object to anything in the world, only I am just trying here to pass some bills for my district.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Louisiana asks unanimous consent for the present consideration of the resolution which the Clerk will report.

The Clerk read as follows:

House resolution 227.

Resolved, That the Committee on Expenditures in the Department of Justice is authorized to have such printing and binding done as shall be necessary for the discharge of the work of such committee during the Sixty-third Congress.

The SPEAKER. Is there objection?

There was no objection.

The SPEAKER. The question is on agreeing to the resolution.

The resolution was agreed to.