The Speaker. The Clerk desires to announce that it requires a quorum to be present when the bill is signed.

The Speaker. Theoretically, but the Chair does not want to take any chances.

The result of the vote was then announced as above reported.

MANN. The Speaker. I ask unanimous consent to take from the Speaker's desk concurrent resolution of the Senate No. 12, providing for the printing of the act.

The Speaker. The gentlement from Virginia asks unanimous consent for the presentment of Senate resolution 12, which the Clerk will report.

The Clerk read as follows:

Senate concurrent resolution 12.

Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives concurring), That there be printed for the use of Congress 80,000 copies of the Federal reserve act in pamphlet form, to be apportioned as follows: Thirty-three thousand copies for the use of the House of Representatives, 20,000 copies for the use of the Senate, 5,000 copies for the use of the Committee on Banking and Currency of the Senate, 5,000 copies for the
